

George L. Zoglio, CPA

20-20 Services LLC Bio

A resident of Boston, MA, George brings over twenty-five years' experience in the fields of accounting, auditing, and taxation. He has served in senior management roles in CPA firms as well as for-profit, not-for-profit and Government organizations. His expertise includes internal controls, budgeting, financial reporting, and Single Audit. In addition to being an instructor with 20 20 Services, LLC, he is also the principal of his own consulting firm, Zoglio Financial Management Solutions, where he provides outsourced CFO and controller services to organizations.

With a comfortable communication style, he has a knack for translating technical accounting and finance issues in to "plain English". His speaking engagement audiences have included financial managers, numerous Boards and Committees, commercial lenders as well as peers. Topics presented include identifying the warning signs of fraud, improving internal controls, UBTI issues, Uniform Guidance, analysis and interpretation of financial statements and business ethics.

He is a graduate of Bryant University, receiving both a BS in Accounting as well as an MBA in Management. He is a member of the AICPA, including the Not-for-Profit and Tax sections as well as the Government and Employee Benefit Plan Audit Quality Centers. He is also a member of the Massachusetts Society of CPA and the Boston Nonprofit Consultants' Network.
