

CHRIS PROVINCE

Certified Public Accountant

Robert "Chris" Province is a highly sought-after and award-winning seminar leader delivering dynamic and engaging CPE seminars to CPAs and business professionals across the country. State CPA societies and firms alike consider Chris to be their trusted provider of CPE and often comment he was "asked for by name" by many seminar attendees. Chris consistently receives outstanding evaluations for the courses he instructs. He has authored many CPE courses throughout his career and has been an instructor and author for many different organizations since 2000.

Chris received the California CPA Education Foundation's "Discussion Leader of the Year" Award, has been featured in several business publications, and has appeared in various CPE webinars and broadcasts.

Chris is the owner of a successful CPA firm specializing in taxation of high net worth individuals and closely held businesses with clients located throughout the United States. For over 30 years, Chris has served his client's interests with one-of-a-kind, hands-on, personalized service that can only be delivered by the most experienced tax professional. Year after year, clients return and refer business to Chris because of his strong client relationships and accurate, timely and expert guidance. Prior to opening his own firm, Chris served as a tax partner and senior tax member for several regional and national CPA firms.

The combination of serving clients while staying ahead of the curve in order to write material and teach to the CPA industry the latest tax law changes keeps Chris on the cutting edge in both industries.

Chris earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and Finance from California State University Northridge. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants. Chris has served as a member of the national AICPA S-Corporation Technical Resource Panel and as a member of the Qualifications Committee for the California Board of Accountancy.
